

FIVE MORE WIVES OBTAIN DIVORCES

Wife of William Carroll, the Well Known Architect, Among Number.

CASES HEARD SUBMITTED.

Mrs. Milando Pratt, Jr., Awarded a Decree on the Ground of Desertion—Other Cases.

The divorce mill grind which began before Judge Hiles yesterday was resumed this morning and as a result five more mis-fitted couples were liberated.

The first case to receive judicial attention was that of Norah J. Carroll vs. William Carroll. The defendant is the well known architect, and his wife was given a decree of divorce on the grounds of habitual drunkenness and cruelty.

The couple were married at Provo on August 5, 1885, and the issue of the marriage is a daughter, now in her thirteenth year.

According to the report of Clerk F. W. Little, who took testimony in the case, it appears that Carroll has been guilty of intemperance for more than two years past. Frequently the defendant came home the worse for liquor and would abuse his wife in the presence of the child. Upon more than one occasion Carroll is said to have threatened to take his wife's life.

The decree annuls the marriage contract and gives Mrs. Carroll the custody of the child. Nothing was said about alimony.

O'BRIAN VS O'BRIAN.

Hannah O'Brian obtained a divorce from John O'Brian on the grounds of drunkenness, cruelty and failure to support. The parties were married in this city on September 10, 1890. The case was heard before Referee Little last November.

RICHARDS VS RICHARDS.

Desertion and failure to provide were the grounds upon which Mrs. Richards secured a divorce from Arthur C. Richards. The marriage took place at Helena, July 27, 1891, and Mrs. Richards stated that her husband left her four years ago. She further stated that since he abandoned her she had not heard from him.

PRATT VS. PRATT.

Lizette Pratt obtained a decree of divorce from Milando Pratt Jr. on the ground of desertion. Leo C. Critman was given a decree of divorce from E. Delaney Critman, on the ground of non-support. She was also awarded the custody of a seven-year-old girl and restored to her maiden name, which is Leo C. Mathers.

$100,000 TO LEAVE THE TOWN

Offer Whiteside Claimed to Have Received in Montana Case.

MAKE MORE OUT OF DALY.

Reason for His Remaining—Testimony of a Banker—Legislator—Montana Muddle on the Stir.

Washington, Feb. 10.—State Senator Tierney of Montana continued his testimony in the Clark case before the Senate committee on privileges and elections today. He said he had never been asked to support Mr. Clark for the Senate and therefore was never offered any consideration for his vote for that gentleman. The details of the organization of the Townsend bank, in which he had money, was explained and how he had money in it.

Mr. Tierney said the $5,000 which he put into the organization of the new bank at Townsend had been kept in the safe of Darsey & Co., where it had been put in preference to putting it in the bank of Hyatt & Delany, the only bank then existing at Townsend. Of the $5,000 drawn out in this transaction not to exceed $2,000 had been entered upon the books of the firm. He had taken it out because it was his. Very often, however, these deposits were put into the general cash fund of the firm.

In response to a question from Senator Chandler, the witness said that notwithstanding he knew there were aspersions cast upon his character because of his vote for Mr. Clark, he had brought no paper of any kind to Washington with him to show where the $5,000 used in organizing the Townsend bank had come from. The questioning brought out the fact that both Eversoll and Representative Sheveley who, together with Mr. Tierney, constituted the whole legislative delegation from Broadwater county, were stockholders in the new Townsend bank. Of the entire $25,000 capital Mr. Tierney testified that himself and relatives and business associates had contributed about $18,000. Messrs. Eversoll and Sheveley each having $1,000. The organization had been canvassed two years previous to the time of its actual organization, but the idea had not been put into execution because of the difficulty of getting the money together. Some of the money put in by his relatives had been brought from the East. All the members of the legislature who were connected with Mr. Daly to Flathead county during the legislative election of 1898, to assist Mr. Whiteside in his race for the State senate. On the train out from Columbia Falls he said he had a talk with Whiteside, and the latter told him that Senator Clark had sent money into the county to be used against him, adding he would get even with Clark if it ever came in his way for bucking him in his election.

Mr. Clark told him that he would "get Clark to a fare-you-well." Again, in Helena, after the legislature met, he asked Whiteside for some money.

Whiteside replied, "said the witness, "that he had only $7, though a few weeks before he had had $20,000 in his pockets, but that as it had not been his turned it over to the State. He said he had been offered $100,000 to leave the town. I told him," continued the witness, "that he was a day's fool for not keeping the money, but he replied that he could make more out of the other side—out of Daly—by turning the money over."

On cross-examination, the witness said he had thought that Whiteside had meant that he could not only get the $100,000 for leaving, but he could also keep the $30,000. He added that Mr. Whiteside had loaned him $5 of the $7 he had on hand, and that he had paid the amount back.

Adjourned until Monday.

B. H. ROBERTS FOR DUNBAR.

Interview given at Salt Lake City, February 9th, 1900.

The Dunbar managers are sending out the following clipping:

"Mr. Roberts, a telegram from Washington announced that you favored the candidacy of Major J. V. Young as your successor to Congress. Has the absolute refusal of Major Young to run left you without a personal preference?"

No. Have you any objection to stating that for our party?"

Not at all. Of course the Democratic State Convention will choose its candidate, and he will be my candidate, whoever he is. However, that I have a personal choice among the gentlemen spoken of in connection with that office is true.

Do you object to revealing his name?"

No. As you are aware my first choice was Major Young, because I believed the Democratic Party could more easily carry the State with him than with any other man. Major Young, however, has positively declined to let his name be used and he is therefore out of the question.

Of the other gentlemen named, I believe D. C. Dunbar possesses not only the qualifications, but stands in such a position in relation to the Democratic party and the people of this State as to make him the most desirable candidate for our party. For this reason, I shall naturally do all I can, in reason, to aid in securing Mr.
